PoloPlaz Supreme is the best oil modified polyurethane finish. It is distinguished by its high solids content for that extra build. Supreme's long open time allows the finish to be rolled on to eliminate streaks and lap marks. PoloPlaz Supreme finish has excellent flow, leveling, and flexibility characteristics, as well as unbeatable hardness and film properties. Combine this with reliable drying and anti-bubbling agents, it's no wonder that Supreme Finish has been the choice of professionals for over 50 years. Manufactured with the purest resins available, PoloPlaz Supreme produces a clear, low ambering protective polyurethane coating that you'll proudly display in your own home or showroom.
